History Essay Questions for Different Essay Types

- What methods did the political leaders in America use to win their public acceptance during the civil rights movement?
- What were the differences between the Ottoman and Mughal military approaches, and what policies and decisions did they grow upon?
- What was the contribution of reforms in the Ottoman Empire to the development of a more secular mentality in the Islamic world?
- What role did the CIA play in the policy of containment developed by the U.S.?
- The madrasa - the way the Sunni managed to survive. Explain.
- The Treaty of Versailles - how did it change Germany and lead it to the current state of politics?
- The purges - what did they say about French conflicts?
- How does monarchy change the vision of politics?
- Why did the British colonial dominance go into oblivion after the end of WWII?
- What happened on May 6, 1937?
- Use any primary historical document and explain its meaning.
- Take some extract from a larger historical work and explain its meaning in context.
- Irish nationalism and Parnellism - how did they fit together?
- How did the industrialization of the western world change the economy of western countries after WWI?
- How did the political position of Great Britain evolve throughout the 20th century?
- How did the image problems affecting Stuart monarchy affect its success at the beginning of the 17th century?
• What was the position of female gender and women in Canadian economy in the first half of the 20th century?

• How did the King James translation of the Bible contributed to the general understanding of the document, and how did it improve the overall impression of the document in millions of people on the planet?

• What is National Curriculum History? How can it be improved? What are the strengths and weaknesses of the concept? How does it operate within a broader historical context? Can you see how helpful it is when the history progresses across stages? Explain.

• What are the commonalities and differences in the aggressive and passive methods of resistance to Europeans among slaves? What were the strengths and weaknesses of each method?

• Who was the most heroic leader in human history? Prove and explain.

• Do you agree with a statement that Nazi propaganda played the leading role in advancing the aggressive message of the Nazi state across the world?

• What was the role of leadership talent and charisma in making Mussolini and Hitler the leading figures of their repressive regimes?

• How did the first humans understand the natural world?

• What happened to the UK after WWII and why did it lose its colonial power?

• What has changed in the global understanding of ‘people’s war’?

• What was the success of Oliver Cromwell in promoting the interests of the English state in the West Indies, as well as in Ireland?

• Residential development - how can it challenge the historical values and principles adopted by societies?

• Why has America been always regarded as a country of opportunities? In a history essay like this, discuss when people first came to America to start a new life and find some new perspectives for living.

• Discuss the concept of Puritanism and how it affected the modern American outlook. In a history paper on such topic, it is advisable to discuss and analyze how people may be influenced by their really distant past on unconscious level.

- Imagine that you live in the USA in 1776. Do you see yourself as a revolutionist? When writing an essay on such topic, make sure to discuss what makes some people revolutionary.

- Discuss the American Constitution. Is it rigid or flexible?

- Discuss and analyze slavery as a cause of the Civil War. Was it the only one cause? What were the other causes, if any?

- Was it possible for the USA to stay on a neutral position during the period of World War I? Discuss how Americans get involved in different military actions supporting particular countries. Investigate the reasons why people do it?

- Can you find any justification factors for the world in Vietnam? What are the significant outcomes?

- Do you agree that the world has become a safer place to live, especially after the Cold War? What about the weapons used nowadays?

- Investigate the history of acquiring women’s rights. How did the move originate? What is the situation nowadays and how can it be improved?

- Were the European leaders influenced by the Catholicism? Provide some specific examples of such manifestation.

- Investigate the name “the Dark Ages.” Why is this period called in such way?

- Characterize the main traits of the patronage system. What effects does it have? Do you agree that one individual can use his/ her power on behalf of the other one?

- Explore how far religious views influenced the Chinese empire? When answering such history essay questions, explore how Confucianism and Buddhism influenced the decisions of the Chinese emperors.

- Why was the bubonic plague spread? How was the problem addressed?

- Analyze the influence of the Greek culture on the Romans? Discuss the topic by providing specific examples of how the Roman Empire was influenced by the Greek culture, lifestyle, way of thinking, etc.

- Argue about what culture had a more influential role in the world's history: Greek or Roman? Investigate what modern-world concepts originated in Ancient Greece and Rome.

- What aspects make the Chinese Empire Unique? Why do they have dynasties? What is it special about its ruling?

- Do you believe that the Cold War could be finished before 1991? Do you agree that only the Soviet Union collapse could have led to the end of the Cold War? What other factors or events could have brought the Cold War to the end?

History is full of extraordinary concepts and lessons and many of them could be used as great examples for writing history essays.

- Do you agree that it was a normal practice in Ancient China to pay doctors only in the condition when they could cure a patient? Do you believe that this practice should be implemented in the modern world? Would you pay the doctor merely for the result or the process of treating patients?

- Do you know that one of the shortest wars Anglo-Zanzibar the duration of which was 38 minutes. Why do you think it sometimes takes a few years to end wars? Why do you think wars happen even in the modern times?

- In 400 BC, there were more than 500,000 slaves in Sparta with its population of 25,000 people. Why do you think slavery was so widespread in those times? What was its importance? Investigate the concept of slavery in the past vs. in the modern times.

- Some historical evidence claims that Leonardo da Vinci had dyslexia. As it is evident from historical facts, even the most significant and prominent historic personalities may have some conditions. Nonetheless, they did not prevent them from creating some world-famous artworks.

- Investigate the frequency of wars during the history. According to the estimates, only 200 years out of 3,500 were peaceful. Why do you think it is impossible to live without wars? Why do they always happen?

- Why were baths used as rehabilitation centers for the Roman soldiers? Do you agree that apart from the curing method, it was also a way of coping with stress and traumas?

- The parrot owned by the late Andrew Jackson was removed from Jackson’s funeral for swearing. Do you agree it was normal to do it? Would Jackson want to remove his parrot were he alive? How far do you agree that a specific way of conduct should be maintained at such gatherings as funeral?

- Discuss the Battle of Stalingrad. What happened then? Who ceased control? Focus on the fact that one of the railway stations was controlled by different persons more than 10 times within six hours. Railway station was a means of transporting various goods, so it was really important to maintain control of it.